

Setting up your GitHub account for the ITP projectIT2080 – Information Technology Project*Semester 2, 2022

Objectives: Setting up GitHub Accounts for the ITP projectExercise 1: (To be completed by Project Group Leader)

1. If you have an existing GitHub account, you can use it or create a new GitHub account.
2. Update the existing ReadMe file with your student registration and GitHub username.
3. Use the URL as <https://classroom.github.com/a/AzJKBzda> to setup the repository for your group (please don't use any other URL)
4. Create a new Project name, just use your project group id e.g., ITP2021_S2_B01_G01 (don't use any other details)
5. Update the front page to reflect the GitHub accounts to group members.

Exercise 2: (To be completed by Other Members)

1. If you have an existing GitHub account, you can use it or create a new GitHub account.
2. Update the existing ReadMe file with your student registration and GitHub username.
3. Use the URL as <https://classroom.github.com/a/AzJKBzda> to setup the repository for your group (please don't use any other URL)
4. Follow all the instructions provided.
5. Join the project group created by your project group leader.

NOTE: It is mandatory to commit code regularly